1. Introduction and Purpose

This Employee Handbook and Company Policy Manual (the "Handbook") establishes the official policies, procedures, and standards of conduct for all employees of Nexora Solutions Inc. ("Nexora," "the Company," "we," or "us"). It is designed to provide clear guidance on expectations, benefits, and responsibilities shared between the Company and its employees.

This Handbook applies to all employees, regardless of position, location, or employment type, unless otherwise stated within a specific policy. It supersedes all previous versions of the Handbook and any verbal or informal statements of policy.

1.1 Purpose of This Document

This document serves as the single source of truth for company policy and is maintained for reference by employees, managers, and the People & Culture Department. It is also intended to serve as a knowledge base for internal support tools, including automated assistants that answer employee questions about policy.

1.2 Acknowledgment of Receipt

All employees are required to read this Handbook in full and sign an acknowledgment of receipt within thirty (30) calendar days of their start date. Acknowledgment forms are retained in each employee's personnel file.

1.3 Policy Review and Amendments

This Handbook is reviewed annually by the People & Culture Department and Legal Department, and may be amended at any time at the Company's discretion. Employees will be notified of material changes via company-wide email and the internal policy portal.

2. Employment Policies

2.1 Equal Employment Opportunity

Nexora Solutions is an equal opportunity employer. The Company prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.

2.2 Employment Classifications

- Full-Time Employee: Regularly scheduled to work at least 35 hours per week.
- Part-Time Employee: Regularly scheduled to work fewer than 35 hours per week.
- Temporary Employee: Hired for a specific project or defined period, typically not to exceed 12 months.
- Independent Contractor: Engaged under a separate contractor agreement and not subject to this Handbook except where explicitly stated.

2.3 Introductory Period

All new full-time and part-time employees serve a ninety (90) calendar day introductory period beginning on their start date. During this period, performance and fit are evaluated by the employee's manager, and either party may end the employment relationship at any time, consistent with the Company's at-will employment policy.

2.4 Employment of Relatives

Relatives of current employees may be hired as long as they do not directly supervise, or be supervised by, a relative, and do not work within the same direct reporting line. Exceptions require written approval from the Chief People Officer.

2.5 Background Checks and Verification

Offers of employment are contingent upon successful completion of a background check, which may include verification of employment history, education, criminal record checks (where legally permitted), and reference checks.

3. Code of Conduct and Ethics

3.1 General Standards of Conduct

Employees are expected to act with integrity, professionalism, and respect in all interactions with colleagues, clients, vendors, and the public. Conduct that reflects poorly on the Company, undermines trust, or violates the law is grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
